

ASPA Conference 2021 – Physical Literacy

The Australasian Society of Physical Activity (ASPA) - Physical Literacy Special Interest Group (SIG) is hosting our inaugural VIRTUAL satellite event. This event will showcase some exciting physical literacy advancements and achievements in the Australasia region. Academics will update us on the latest research in physical literacy, and practitioners will show us how they bring physical literacy to life through program application. Following the VIRTUAL satellite event will be ASPA's conference on the 19th November.

- Thursday 18 November 2021, 1:30-4:30pm (AEST)
- Registration is $10 for ASPA members and $20 for non-members to register for the satellite meeting.
- Presentations to be 20 minutes plus 5 minutes for Q & A

Timing	Session	Activity
1:30 – 1:40 pm (10 min)	Welcome and introduction	Introducing the direction of physical literacy in Australasia - Dr Lisa Barnett (SIG Co-Chair, Deakin University) - Pierre Comis (SIG Co-Chair, CEO Special Olympics Australia)
1:40 – 2:05pm (25 min)	New Zealand perspective	The Sport New Zealand approach to physical literacy - Neil Snowling, (Evaluation Lead, Sport New Zealand) - Karen Laurie (Tamariki Lead, Sport New Zealand)
2:05 – 2:30pm (25 min)	Australian perspective	Australia's innovative relationship with Physical Literacy Dr Dean Dudley (SIG Leadership, Macquarie University)
2:30 – 2:40pm (10 min)	Break
2:40 – 3:05 pm (25 min)	Example from the field	Embedding physical literacy in teacher training and regional policy development - Jacki Lauff (CEO, Sports Matters)
3:05 – 3:30pm (25 min)	Example from the field	Applying physical literacy as the focal point when developing a sport product - Golf Australia's Get Into Golf program - Jayden Zeinstra (Products Manager, Golf Australia)
3:30 – 4:10pm (40 min)	Panel discussion and audience participation	All presenters will be part of an interactive panel discussion. Audience members are invited to ask the expert's questions to dive deeper into the application of physical literacy
4:10 – 4:15 (5min)	Meeting close	Satellite event wrap up - Dr Lisa Barnett (SIG Co-Chair, Deakin University) - Pierre Comis (SIG Co-Chair, CEO Special Olympics Australia)