

Scaling up Physical Activity (SUPA) Special Interest Group Satellite Meeting

Scaling up physical activity in Australasia. Can it be done and how?

Location: Online via Zoom (link to be provided prior to the event)

Date: Thursday 18th November 2021

Time: 10.00 – 13.00 AEDT

Time	Session	Activity
10:00	Welcome and introduction	State of Play in the Field: ‘The science and the practice of scaling up’ - Dr Harriet Koorts (SIG Chair, Deakin University)
10:20	Scale-up debate	“Successful scale-up of physical activity interventions: It’s simply a matter of luck” - Dr Natalie Lander (Deakin University) & James Boyer (NSW Department of Education). Moderator: Prof. Adrian Bauman (University of Sydney) TEAM A: AFFIRMATIVE- Dr Nick Petrunoff (National University of Singapore), Siobhan Wong (University of Sydney), Prof. Corneel Vandelanotte (Central Queensland University) TEAM B: NEGATIVE- Trevor Shilton (Heart Foundation), Dr Pairoj Saonuan (Thai Health Promotion Foundation), Assoc. Prof. Verity Cleland (University of Tasmania)
10:50	Break
11:00	Scale-up debate	Voting announcement and closing remarks - Guest Moderator Prof. Adrian Bauman (University of Sydney)
11:10	Examples from the field	How has scale-up been tackled in Australasia? - Karen Lee (University of Sydney) & Annika Ryan (University of Newcastle) Presentation 1: Scaling up Science, Physical Education and Me (SPEM) from the US to China - Si-Tong Chen (Shanghai University of Sport) on behalf of the SPEM team in China Presentation 2: Scaling up Physical Activity in NSW Schools – iPLAY. - James Boyer (NSW Department of Education) - Dr Taren Sanders (Australian Catholic University)
12:10	Break
12:20	Future of the SUPA SIG	The SUPA SIG’s long-term vision - Dr Jo Chau (Macquarie University)
12:25	Audience participation	Break out groups for discussion: What do our members want? Summary of session and closing remarks
12:50	Meeting close	Satellite meeting wrap up - Dr Harriet Koorts (Deakin University)